FACTORY GIRL GIVES UP

Too Sick to Work—Doctor
Advised Operation. Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.—"I run a sewing machine in a large factory and got all run down. I had to give up work for I could not stand the pains in my back. The doctor said I needed an operation for female trouble but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me more than the doctors did. I hope that every one who is suffering will get the Compound. My pains, nervousness and backache are gone and I have gained five pounds. I owe my thanks to your medicine for it is the working girls friend, and all women who suffer should write to you for special advice."—Miss TULLIE FLENZIO, 3 Jay St., Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

When a remedy has lived for over thirty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their very lives to it, is it not reasonable to believe that it is an article of great merit?

We challenge anyone to show any other one remedy for a special class of disease which has attained such an enormous demand and maintained it for so many years as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Hilo Social Notes

HILO, May 6.—Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Bishop, Miss Edna Curtis, Mr. Parke and Mr. Foster made a jolly automobile party to the volcano on Sunday.

Miss Herrendeen and Mrs. Ashman of Pahoa were week-end visitors at the Volcano, literally, as these two ladies spent the entire night Saturday at the edge of the burning pit.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Metzger entertained over Sunday Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Curtis at their charming little home down at the breakwater.

Mrs. Delbert Metzger leaves on this trip of the Mauna Kea for Honolulu, there to meet the widow of Mr. Metzger's brother who was recently killed in an automobile accident while touring California. Mrs. Ford Metzger comes in the Wilhelmina for a short visit here.

The Hilo lodge of B. P. O. E. has cards out for a dance to be given on Saturday evening next at the Masonic Hall. That it will be a grand success goes without saying. Everybody loves the Elks and then, too, it's been some time since they have entertained.

The Hilo Dramatic Club is preparing to give a play at the Gaiety Theater on July 4. The committee in charge of the entertainment consists of Mrs. F. H. Drange, Mrs. Chris. Castendyke and Mrs. H. B. Elliot.

Miss Edna Curtis spent Friday and Saturday at the Puna home of Mrs. Lewis Turner.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Blanch Miller of the Hilo Boarding School faculty, and Mr. F. A. Clowes, superintendent of the agricultural substation at Glenwood. The wedding will take place in July.

Mr. Henry Gerlach and family of Olat leave today in the Hiltonian en route to their home in Cleveland, Ohio, where they expect to remain. Mr. Gerlach has been on the big plantation almost since it started, or about thirteen years. As a token of the esteem in which Mr. Gerlach is held, the employees of Olat Sugar Co. last evening called on him in a body and presented him with a beautiful gold watch suitably inscribed. Mr. Chas. Wetherbee, in a few well chosen words, wished the travelers good luck and Godspeed.

"OLD BOYS" TO WELCOME WILLIS

On Monday evening at seven-thirty o'clock, there will be a meeting of all those "old boys" who were educated under the jurisdiction of Bishop Staley, Bishop Willis and Bishop Restarick. The meeting is to be held in the Davies Memorial Hall.

The object of the gathering is to arrange for the entertainment of Bishop Willis, of Tonga, who is to arrive in Honolulu on the C. A. steamer Makura, on May 21. There are many men in Honolulu who were educated during the days Bishop Willis was here, and it is thought that there will be a representative gathering on the evening of May 21.

THE THEATERS

Coming Minstrel Show.

There are three days left after today to procure tickets for the opening night of Hugo Brothers' minstrel show, which will make its debut next Tuesday evening at the Opera House. At the Promotion Committee rooms, where the sale of seats is in progress, there has been an extra heavy demand for first-night tickets.

The fame of the company has penetrated here already from the Coast, where it has been playing for the past three weeks, and those who saw the performance in Seattle declare that it is an entertainment both original and unique.

The singing of Miss Clark is responsible for a large part of the applause given the company by the mainland press. Better known as the "girl who sings to beat the band," Miss Lea Clark may be remembered by some as the soloist who sang with Kryn's band two years ago during its tour of the West.

Miss Clark will sing with the Hugo company's band every evening during the troupe's engagement here, and has promised to render a popular program. The band concert will be given in the open air and all are welcome to attend.

After the band concert, which will be held early in the evening in front of the Opera House, the entertainment proper will begin. It consists of a first-part minstrel show given by thirty-six negroes procured at great expense from Dockstader's and Haverley's famous aggregation.

The show is a complete array of new jokes and skits, and there is not an old song in the bunch, all the music being made up of the latest and catchiest ragtime melodies. The second part of the entertainment will consist of an all-star vaudeville bill, the performers of which have been carefully chosen from the Orpheum and Kohl & Castle circuits.

THE OCEAN.

His steps are not upon thy paths, thy fields
Are not a spoil for him, thou dost arise
And shake him from thee; the vile strength he wields
For earth's destruction thou dost all despise,
Spurning him from thy bosom to the skies,
And send'st him, shivering in thy playful spray
And howling, to his gods, where haply lies
His petty hope in some near port or bay,
And dashest him again to earth; there let him lay.

The armaments which thunderstrike the walls
Of rock built cities, bidding nations quake
And monarchs tremble in their capitals,
The oak leviathans, whose huge ribs make
Their clay creator the vain title take
Of lord of thee, and arbiter of war—
These are thy toys, and, as the snowy flake,
They melt into thy yeast of waves, which mar
Alike the Armada's pride or spoils of Trafalgar. BYRON.

A SARCASM OF SPORT.

"What were you doing out so early this morning?"
"Practicing up a bit for the golf match," replied Mr. Crosslots.
"I thought so. But from the way the turf was flying I couldn't be sure you weren't making garden."—Washington Star.

YOUNG men are really responsible for "bringing back" the Norfolk style; it was a very popular model some years ago, and then it "went out" for a while. But of recent years it has "come back" strong, and the young men are responsible.

It's a good thing, too; for the Norfolk is a jaunty, snappy looking coat; it looks well on almost any figure, and as make it, there's a style and smartness about it that isn't to be found in the ordinary clothes.

Young men have been a help in developing some of the other good models from these great makers. The Shape-maker, for instance; a typical young man's style. The Varsity, which began years ago as a college style, is a favorite today with sedate business men; and the Shape maker may have a similar history.

Get in and see this new stuff for Spring; it's great; the most beautiful weaves in tweeds, cheviots, worsteds, serges; American and imported cloths; a great array of colors and patterns.
